Dear St Michael’s College Community,

As you would be aware, Mass is celebrated on a weekly basis at each of our campuses. The Masses are year level based and held at the Secondary Campus at 9.00am Wednesdays and the Primary Campus at 9.05am Thursdays. Families are always welcome.

I am consistently impressed with the preparation of classes and the overall participation, reflectiveness and reverence of the students.

The Reading at this week’s Primary Campus Mass held a particular significance for the St Michael’s College community at this time of the year. It was from Isaiah and included the following passage:

What I’m interested in seeing you do is:
~ sharing your food with the hungry;
~ inviting the homeless poor into your homes;
~ putting clothes on the shivering ill-clad;
~ being available to your own families.

Do this and the lights will turn on, and your lives will turn around at once.

During this season of Lent, we not only have individuals giving of themselves, but as a College we are supporting a number of initiatives including Caritas, through Project Compassion, and Vinnies with their Vinnies Week Clothing Appeal.

Of course, we also have the College involved in Mission Action Day this Friday. This is a significant event for the St Michael’s community as we come together to help others. While it is a great opportunity for staff and students to have some fun and spend time together outside of normal school day routines, it is more importantly a time to raise greatly needed funds for the poor and marginalized. This is genuinely putting the Lasallian Mission into action!

Sometimes we might think that our individual donations might not make a significant difference, but when we come together as a community, we get a greater sense of what our efforts can achieve. I would like to thank the St Michael’s community for the generosity, selflessness and compassion for others which is displayed through each of these initiatives.

CONGRATULATIONS MURTAZA!

We extend our congratulations to Murtaza Hussaini (College Leader) who has been invited to attend a Reception hosted by His Excellency the Governor and the Premier of South Australia in the presence of Their Royal Highnesses The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge during their visit in April.

Murtaza (pictured) was nominated by the Australian Refugee Association as a young leader in our community.

PROJECT COMPASSION BRINGS YOU

The St Michael’s College Community is proud to support Project Compassion throughout Lent.

The Solomon Islands are often threatened by weather-related disasters such as earthquakes, floods, tsunamis and cyclones. Martina is a primary school teacher, and is teaching her students how to stay safe during disasters, which often happen when they are away from their homes. The program has had great success, and is soon to be expanded to other countries in the Pacific Islands which face similar risks, so that just like Martina and her students, others too are able to live without fear when disasters strike.

Your Project Compassion donation is saving the lives of children who are among the most vulnerable to natural disasters. www.caritas.org.au.

Vinnies Week

Families in regional SA desperately need your pre-loved clothing. Do you have any clothes that have not been worn in 12 months? Donate them during Vinnies Week.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING APPEAL

St Michael’s College along with other Catholic schools are supporting an appeal by Vinnies for clothing, including sporting apparel and shoes, for the families and young people of Coober Pedy. During this busy time of Lent and our preparations for Mission Action Day, the College is seeking your support for this initiative.

Students will be advised during pastoral care where to take the goods as various collection locations will be available. Additional items can be delivered to either Campus Administration Office.

Please ensure that items are clean and not damaged.

We thank you in anticipation of your support of this worthy cause.

SECONDARY CAMPUS

SEQTA ~ IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR PARENTS

2014 is an exciting year at St Michael's College Secondary Campus in the area of Learning Technologies.

Significant changes have been unfolding, namely the Learning Management System (SEQTA) and the roll-out of Laptops / Tablets to all secondary students.

We are phasing in various aspects to enhance our teaching and learning. In Semester 2 it is our aim to have all Learning programs on-line.

SEQTA has teacher, student and parent modules. Staff are currently using the program to mark rolls, enter Pastoral and Academic data and many also have teaching and learning programs on-line for student use. Teachers are increasingly taking advantage of the student module to:

- Have resources/ files readily available 24 hours on line for student use.
- Post answers/ solutions to assignments on-line.
- Provide on-line feedback.
- Post all homework and assignments.
- Display academic progress with a summary of all test and assignment results.

We encourage you ask your son or daughter to show you the ‘module’ so that you can see the types of uses both in Teaching and Learning Programs and Assessment.

Parent-student communication is highly valued at St Michael’s. One aspect of this communication is what we have traditionally called the Academic Progress Report. This Report was intended to inform parents of progress in a subject area, either of a positive nature or where a student may not have performed as expected in a particular assessment item.

Using SEQTA, teachers can now directly communicate with parents by sending a Progress Report home via email. This feature will be on-line from the beginning of Term 2, 2014.

To test the accuracy of our family email data, and also the integrity of the SEQTA process in sending Progress Reports, we will send a test email to all parent addresses on Monday 7 April. If you fail to receive this email, please make contact with the College via email: smc@smc.sa.edu.au

These are exciting times and we thank you for working together with us to ensure best outcomes for all.

Mr Alan Crierie
Deputy Principal - Curriculum
REACH FOR THE STARS
On Friday 21 March thirty Year 9, 10 and 11 students, interested in pursuing higher levels of Mathematics and Sciences attended a presentation by the Head of NASA, Major General Charles Bolden at The Adelaide Convention Centre. Given he controls a budget of US$17.5 billion dollars this would make him one of the planet’s most influential people. GM Bolden was invited to South Australia by the Vice Chancellor of University of SA Professor David Lloyd, to inspire school students to “Reach for the Stars” and stay with the highest level of Maths and Science subjects available to them. Our students were suitably inspired. It was exciting to see this group of students seize this opportunity to witness such a high achiever and listen to his message. With 800 school students fully absorbed you could have heard a pin drop, yes a rare occurrence! We thank the University of South Australia for providing our students with this opportunity. Thanks to Mrs Finlay and Mr Thur for coordinating the event. A valuable lesson in seizing opportunities that we are presented with!
You can also watch Administrator Bolden’s presentation and share the link with others.

STUDENT REFLECTIONS FROM THE RECENT YEAR 12 RETREAT...

Belair
I attended the retreat located at Belair, or Nunyara - “the place of healing”. During the retreat, students participated in team building activities at Belair National Park, dance and novelty games. I found the retreat to be a thoroughly rewarding and positive experience as I was able discuss and reflect upon the key relationships in my life: family, peers, God and my sense of self. Through reflection, one of the most important things I gained was the realisation that the way I view myself must change. I now know that I have to love and accept myself for the person I am. I also cherished the opportunity to talk to a new range of people in a relaxed environment. This allowed me not only to come out of my shell a little more but also to get to know my peers a lot better. The retreat has taught me to embrace experiences with an open mind. In doing so they can have a greater influence and reward on how I view the world around me. Alyssa

Mylor
A few weeks ago, we were lucky enough to spend a few days at Mylor Baptist Centre. This gave us the opportunity to reflect upon our relationships with ourselves, our friends, and our families. I found it to be an extremely beneficial experience for me not only as a student, but particularly as a person. As our study workload began to increase, it was a perfect time for me just to reflect. The experience challenged me to think about myself; where I’m currently at, where my values lie, where I want to get to, and how it is I want to go about getting there. It also gave me the opportunity to think about and build upon my relationships with those around me, developing a web of friends that I can open up to, and enjoy the company of.

While at the time, I thought I really enjoyed the few days away, after being back at school for a couple of weeks, I’m finding that I am now experiencing the real benefits of the Year 12 Retreat. I’ve come back with a greater zeal for both life, and school, not to mention a new motivation to continue building and enjoying my positive relationships with those around me. Michael

Normanville
For Year 12 retreat, I was thankful for the opportunity to go to Normanville. Normanville, as well as all the other retreats, gave us the opportunity to take a free-spirited and open-minded approach to both our personal goals and goals for building and strengthening relationships. One of the main benefits of the Retreat was spending time with people who I had never really come to know during over four years at the College. Being able to see people in a calming environment truly brought out the best in everyone and made it easier to open up to each other and form bonds that will last for the rest of the school year and beyond.

The retreat experience broke through the sturdy and pressuring wall of the stress that can sometimes surround school, family and friend relationships, work and other personal issues in our lives. The opportunity to share my personal experiences and hear stories from other students and teachers was valuable and helped me to better understand others. It also helped me to become more open to new friendships.

Overall, the Year 12 Retreat was an extremely rewarding experience, leaving me with a sense of compassion and respect for others. It has taught me that open-mindedness and acceptance of others and ourselves are crucial in developing our own personal happiness. Scarlett

WHERE ARE THEY NOW

Peter Oswald (Class of ’61)

Peter Oswald (pictured) attended St Michael’s from 1961 to 1968 following in the footsteps of his older brother John, who attended from 1954 to 1961. After Matriculating, Peter spent three years with the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart interstate before returning to Adelaide to finish his education at the University of Adelaide and embarking on a teaching career, firstly with the SA Education Department and then subsequently with Catholic Education. Peter graduated with a BA in 1974 majoring in History and Economics and a Dip Ed in 1975. In 1976 he was appointed to Underdale High School where he taught History and Economics until 1982.

In September 1982, Peter successfully applied for the position of Student Counsellor at Sacred Heart College where he stayed until 1995. During this period he spent a year (1991) at Mt Carmel College on exchange and then, in 1994 he came to St Michael’s also for a year. Peter’s year at St Michael’s was so enjoyable and energizing that, when he had the opportunity to return on a permanent basis, he jumped at it. In the ensuing nine years he worked as Student Counsellor, Careers Advisor and VET Coordinator as well as teaching Religious Education. From a professional point of view, Peter regards this period as the most fulfilling and rewarding of his career. However, when, in 2005, the opportunity came to go to Rostrevor College, he made the difficult decision to leave St Michael’s and to take up a position to which he had long aspired, Director of Boarding.

The last nine years have also been very rewarding while, at the same time being very challenging. One of the highlights of this position has been the setting up of the Rostrevor Indigenous Sporting Academy that has seen the number of Aboriginal students attending the College and completing their Matriculation year increase enormously. Peter has thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to work with Aboriginal lads and regards it as a privilege to be involved in supporting them as they pursue their educational, social and sporting ambitions. He has also enjoyed caring for boys from a range of different places around Australia and overseas. Working in boarding adds a deeper dimension to that relationship which already exists between educator and student because one is involved closely in the ups and downs of the lives of the boys in one’s care.

Peter has continued the lifelong education process begun at St Michael’s College over forty years ago and has completed Graduate Diplomas in Counselling and Vocational Education as well as a Masters Degree in Social Science (Counselling). He has never lost contact with the College having been involved as an Old Scholar with SMOSH in its early years, a parent of three boys who attended the College as well as working there himself over a ten year period. Peter’s wife, Xenia, was also a teacher at St Michael’s Primary Campus from 1975 to 1977. He has many fond memories of life in the early days of the College and is only too willing to share these memories with his old friends and former school mates and anyone who wants to listen.

This week, Peter is heading off to Beijing to visit one of his sons, Jimmy (Class of ’99) who is doing a PhD in International Studies at Adelaide University and is spending 12 months in Beijing researching his thesis. Peter says Jimmy’s story is more interesting than his! After Year 12, Jimmy decided to get a trade rather than go to University so he did an apprenticeship as an Electrician at Arnotts. However, after completing his trade and working for a couple of years he decided to go back to University to study Chinese and Politics. He completed First Class Honours in a BA in International Studies and is now doing his PhD. He recently gained a Prime Minister’s Scholarship worth $63,500 for 12 months to assist in his studies. He was one of only 20 recipients around Australia. Jimmy married Chinese girl, Xiaojiao Li, before Christmas and is now getting married again in a Chinese ceremony in Jinan, Xiaojiao’s home town in Shandong province in front of her Chinese family and friends. This all started, Peter believes, because, when Jimmy was at St Michael’s, he had the opportunity to study Chinese!

Emu (flags) crossings

What do they look like?
Emu crossings have white road markings and red CHILDREN CROSSING flags displayed on red and white posts.
They are located in school zones.

How do they work?
Emu crossings are part-time crossings. They are only operational when the red CHILDREN CROSSING flags are displayed.
Schools may provide school crossing monitors to supervise the crossing of children and adults.
If trained crossing monitors are not provided, it is a school’s decision whether or not flags are displayed during main crossing times e.g. 30 minutes before school starts and/or 30 minutes after school ends and/or during lunchtimes.
Flags should be taken down at the end of each crossing period.
See Fact sheet 20.

What should pedestrians do?
Whenever people cross the road, even if the flags are displayed, they should still use the STOP LOOK LISTEN THINK procedure to check that vehicles have stopped and drivers have seen them before they walk across.
When the flags are not up pedestrians do not have priority. They should use the STOP LOOK LISTEN THINK procedure to cross the road.
When crossing monitors are on duty everyone must follow their instructions.

What should drivers do?
As emu crossings are in school zones, drivers must travel at no more than 25 km/h at any time when children are present on the road or footpath.
Drivers must stop for anyone using the crossing or about to use the crossing when the flags are displayed.
Drivers are not required to stop if the flags are not displayed.
Drivers must not park within 20 metres of the approach to an emu crossing or within 10 metres after passing it.
