Dear St Michael’s Community,

MISSIONARIES OF THE SACRED HEART
This year, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart celebrate 100 years of service in Adelaide. The MSC priests first came to South Australia in 1914 and began their work in a small church at Brompton. From there, they moved to Hindmarsh, which eventually included Beverley and Flinders Park, then to Henley Beach.

Today, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart continue to serve in the Hindmarsh/Brompton/Flinders Park/Findon and Henley Beach Parishes, as well as the Cathedral Parish.

St Michael’s College has worked in close partnership with the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart throughout its history and they continue to act as Chaplains to the College.

Thus, it was my pleasure to attend the Centenary celebration Mass and lunch at Sacred Heart Church, Hindmarsh on Sunday 26 October. It was a wonderful celebration, attended by many who have had a connection with the MSCs over the years.

Also in attendance were past Principals, Peter Wallace and Br John Pill, shown here with Fr Bill Bradey MSC.

NOVEMBER ~ MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE
November is an important month in the Catholic Church’s liturgical calendar. It is the month dedicated to praying for the deceased members of our community. Praying for the deceased has been our custom from the earliest days of the Church. Our faith tells us that prayers can be of use to the deceased as they continue their journey to blessedness with God. Throughout November our Pastoral Support Workers at St Michael’s College, Sr Nithya and Sr Jimsy, would like to pray for the souls of the family and friends of our community who have passed away. If there is anyone you would like them to pray for, please contact either Sr Nithya or Sr Jimsy at the College.

Ms Katrina Senyszyn, Head of Campus Ministry (Secondary)

STUDENTS NOT RETURNING TO THE COLLEGE IN 2015
If your son or daughter will not be returning to the College in 2015, please contact the Registrar, Ms Jane Green, as soon as possible. Many different areas of the College administration are affected by the withdrawal of a student and early advice would be appreciated.

WE REMEMBER ...

The Catholic Community farewelled Archbishop Leonard Faulkner in 2001 after 17 years as pastoral leader of the Adelaide Archdiocese.

For St Michael’s College, staff had for many years promoted the ideal of community service amongst its students and it was pleasing that the students formed St Vincent de Paul and Caritas groups amongst the senior students this year. This formation of community service groups was a fine example of the extension of leadership exhibited on each campus. The 2001 College Captain and De La Salle Award Winner, Daniel Lees, led the student cohort admirably, leading by example and providing enormous support for those traditions that make St Michael’s distinctive. Mission Action Day and De La Salle Day are the major focus for students during the year but also there are breakfasts, badge days, peer support training, retreats, camps, film and recreation days which combine into an encompassing pastoral and meaningful spiritual enrichment.

Italian was introduced to the Primary curriculum and students enjoyed experiencing the culture and language through song, games and other activities. With Information Technology being an integral part of the current teaching and learning practices, St Michael’s introduced an industry focused Multimedia course allowing students to gain relevant theoretical understandings and practical skills from experienced people, along with exposure to the IT industry and workplace. Student participation in the VET program continued to rise with over 100 students now involved and over 400 students completed some form of work experience. The first Doorways to Construction group received their Certificate 2 in Building and Construction and the formation of a Careers and Personal Counselling service for the students was welcomed.

The journey for the teachers and students at the Primary Campus, through the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Program, continued a commitment to helping students to be well-rounded individuals. At the annual Grandparents & Special Friends morning, Darcy Beurle, on piano, captivated those present with his superb performance and Mr Vincenzo Pellegrino was selected as “Grandparent of the Year”. Staff, during the year, spent over 600 hours in training and development, rewriting curriculum and units of work based on the PYP model.

The Brothers were very happy to support the formation of Camp La Salle, SA which brought together a group of ex-students of the College who ran a holiday camp for students in Year 8. Angelo Spadavecchia, Chris De Musso and Rebecca Belton formed the nucleus of this group which still runs successfully today under the direction of old scholar, Dom Ascoli.

On a sad note, in May of 2001, one of the foremost teachers and administrators in the history of St Michael’s College passed away suddenly at home. Mr Robin Anthony Keenan, affectionately known as Rob, had been one of the most significant influences providing direction, both philosophically and structurally, to the position that the College now occupied as one of the leading educational organisations in the western suburbs of Adelaide. Rob was an outstanding educator in the broadest and richest sense of the term. Rob’s spirit is part of the College. May he rest in peace.

JOSIAH MITTON AWARD

Congratulations are extended to Joshua Haller, the 2014 Josiah Mitton Award winner. The Josiah Mitton Award is presented by the City of Charles Sturt Council to a student selected in each of the schools within its boundary. Joshua was presented with this prestigious award on 30 October at a Civic Reception held at the Greater Union Arndale Cinema by the Mayor of the City of Charles Sturt, Ms Kirsten Alexander.

Joshua is a polite young man who is highly regarded by his peers. He has a positive attitude towards his studies, has an ever present smile and is always willing to assist his classmates not only in the classroom but also in the school yard. He is a very popular student with the Junior Primary students as well. Joshua has shown, through his participation in sporting teams, the music instrumental program and as a member of the Beverley Stage Band, that he is fully involved in all aspects of the education that St Michael’s has to offer. Joshua fully deserves to be the recipient of the 2014 Josiah Mitton Award.

PRIMARY CAMPUS SPORTS DAY 2014
The Primary Campus Sports Day was held on Friday 31 October. Students were met with ideal conditions at Henley Memorial Oval. All the students got into the spirit of the day by dressing in their House colors. St James went into the day as favorites as they had won the last five Sport Days, however, St Paul’s had a victory in the House Cross Country Event earlier in the year.

It was great to see the excitement and enjoyment on the faces of all the boys but especially the Receptions as this was their first Sports Day. Over the course of the day there were 3 new records, Lachlan Cox (St Paul) Under-10 800 metre 2.44 minutes, Jack McCann (St James) Under-13 800 metre 2.29 minutes, James Simpson (St Paul) Under-13 200 metre 28.7 seconds.

I would like to thank the Parent Representative Committee and especially Tracey Leaney and Rowena Trevaskis for organizing the canteen and BBQ which was very popular to fuel the students throughout the day. Thank you also to the Beverley staff for the efforts on the day and also to the maintenance team who helped set and transport gear.

In the end, St James proved too strong and made it six victories in a row.

YEAR 11 STUDENTS ~ END OF YEAR

Friday 14 November is the last day of formal classes for Year 11 students. Lessons 1-4 are normal class time. In lesson 5 students will empty out lockers and return any books not required for exams. When this task is completed they will be dismissed by their Pastoral Teacher. Boxes will also be positioned for any unwanted stationary which will then be donated to Boys Town.

Exams begin on Monday 17 November. It is important students are aware of times for their exams. It is a requirement that students are in the correct school uniform whenever they enter the school grounds.

I wish all Year 11 students success as they work towards completing their exams.

YEAR 11 HISTORY – REMEMBER THE HOLOCAUST

Recently Year 11 History students visited the Beit Shalom synagogue to see an exhibition devised by artist, historian and Holocaust survivor Andrew Steiner commemorating the 71st Anniversary of the Sobibor Escape and the 70th Anniversary of Mr Steiner’s failed execution. Eva Temple, a child survivor of the Bergen-Belsen Camp also presented to students.

Regina Zielinski, a survivor of the Sobibor Death Camp and a long time visitor to St Michael’s College passed away recently and the exhibition was a fitting tribute to her life and valued contributions.

Below is some student feedback on the exhibition:

Cilla

The exhibition from Andrew Steiner and Eva Temple was very informative and I enjoyed listening to their stories from the Holocaust. The images and art work within the exhibition and the sculptures made by Andrew were all showing the Holocaust from many different views, showing the children and the adults which helped in showing the devastation of the Holocaust. The exhibition has really helped in my studies and the stories told at this exhibition will help me in further History studies.

On 28 October, I had the privilege to visit a Jewish synagogue, where I listened to Andrew Steiner and Eva Temple speak about their experiences during the Holocaust and other facts that relate to the period. The Holocaust museum consisted of a variety of documents, pictures and sculptures that were very interesting. The speeches that the two presented were very informative and interesting. I encourage Andrew and Eva to continue to present these speeches as they are very moving and allow students to get a better understanding of the Holocaust and the factors involved. Although individuals who were not Holocaust survivors are not able to fully understand what it was like to be there, the knowledge Andrew and Eva provided me with, was very sympathetic and meaningful, and I could only imagine what the two went through. Thank you very much, it was such a great experience listening to both Andrew and Eva.

AUSTRALIA IS AN IMMIGRATION NATION. WE ALL HAVE A MIGRANT STORY

Last week, as part of Year 10 History, students were taken on a visit to the Migration Museum. South Australia has a unique history, it was settled by Europeans in 1836 as part of a social experiment and was not a penal colony. South Australia was also the first state to celebrate its migrant history by setting up the Museum in 1986 as a celebration of the state’s 150 year history.

Students were encouraged to reflect upon their story, their ancestors and just what the phrase Immigration Nation means. It has often be said that much can be learnt from the lessons of the past and in class this week we have been challenged to reflect and explore our perceptions of how events in past migration have shaped our understanding and have an impact upon our interpretation of current migration policies.

Student Reflections

- Australia is an immigration nation, we all have a migrant story to tell. My understanding of an immigration nation is a country (such as Australia) whose population of people mostly consists of people who have come from another country, therefore consists of multiple races and has equality among them all. I believe we have an immigration museum because our immigration history is so diverse that it would make it easier to understand if it was displayed to share among others. It is also important to tell others migration stories because there will always be different stories even from those of the same country and the experience of leaving everything you know to go to a strange land is one that others that are still in their native country should learn to make them really appreciate what they already have.

- For me, the phrase ‘immigration nation’ represents a country where the majority of the population has a relative within recent generations who migrated from another region to the one they or their relatives are currently in. It should also represent a nation that welcomes other countries’ people and their cultures. However, this is not always the case.

- This week I learned many things such as why people come to countries such as Australia and where they usually come from. I learned people came not only to escape persecution, but to live a better life economically and I also learned that people who weren’t ‘white’ but had citizenship often had other problems to face such as family not being allowed in.

- Australia is an immigration nation. We all have a migrant story to tell. This week in history, our class has explored the deep-rooted stories of immigrants to Australia. Through class discussions, videos, and our visit to the Migration Museum, I now understand that Australia can be said to be a nation of immigrants, going right back to the white settlers of 1788. Since that time, people from many other cultures have settled in Australia, hoping for a better way of life. And while there were many struggles with the White Australia Policy, the immigrants fought through, and transformed Australia into the multicultural nation that it is today.

- At some point in History, we have all been migrants so it’s important we recognise, for the sake of our country, that we while we come from many different backgrounds, it is because of these different backgrounds that Australia is the multicultural nation that it is today.

- A ‘migration nation’ is basically a country made up of migrants which account for the population of the nation; thus Australia is filled with migrants from numerous countries. This week we learned that most people migrated because of pull or push factors. These were either because of economic reasons or trying to escape persecution. We have a migration museum unlike countless countries because it is important to understand our roots and the reason why our descendants decided to arrive in Australia.

- Australia is an immigration nation, we all have a migrant story to tell. Immigration nation means to me a nation full of families who have moved homes looking for a better life. It’s important for each of us to know our own personal stories of migration because we then realise the struggles our families went through in hope for us to have the life that we have. This week I’ve learnt the history of Australia’s immigration nation and how many different cultures travelled in search of something better and each of their different struggles.

STUDENT SERVICES

Please be aware that many of these articles have extra information that can be accessed on the Student Services Intranet page: http://intranet/secondary/student_services/latest_news/current.pdf#

YEAR 11 STUDENTS AND VET CERT 3 IT
We have just clarified there is an option to do a VET Cert 3 at Thebarton Senior College on Wednesdays from 4:00pm-7:00pm for interested students (there is no longer the Cert 2 prerequisite). Much of the course is undertaken online. It focuses on networking, hardware and operating systems. There is some urgency to this opportunity so please contact Student Services to make an appointment with Mr Woolford in the next few days. Even if you have expressed interest in Year 12 IT or another VET IT course you will need to see Mr Woolford again specifically about this course. We have 5 students already intending to do this course with possibly space for one more.

APPLYING FOR TAFE 2015
A reminder that the deadline to apply for 2015 TAFE courses is 30 November 2014. There are many course information sessions coming up so please check out course pages well before the closing date.

ELITE SPORTPERSONS AND SACE STAGE 2 SUBJECT
Marden runs a special Stage 2 subject Workplace Practices for Elite Athletes. It is set up via booklets, email, phone hookups and an optional face to face day each holidays. There are 4 assignments to do over the year and each assignment focuses on aspects of the student’s particular sport. Whilst it does involve a significant commitment and independent work ethic, it can mean that a student has a Year 12 TAS Subject score in place and if competing at a demanding level in Year 12, they then know this score can be used for Uni entrance and of course SACE completion.

The catch; as well as a student requiring a very independent and self-driven approach to study, the result is heavily scaled for University Entrance. So students aiming for Uni courses with a high ATAR Selection Rank will need to get in the A band. If your son/daughter participates in a sport at an elite level – usually measured by State representation, then they may be interested in taking on this subject. We have had some very organized and high achieving Year 10 students take this on. Year 10 and Year 11 students would do this subject on top of their normal subject load, whilst Year 12 students could do this as one of their subjects or on top of their load. Ms Coorey can email you an Induction Booklet. There will be an Information Session to be held at Marden in Week 6. Please email Ms Coorey as soon as possible if interested.
JUNIOR SOCCER COACHING POSITIONS

Adelaide Olympic Football Club for juniors, based at West Lakes Shore Primary School and Jubilee Reserve, has vacancies for Junior Soccer Coaches for the 2015 Season. It is desirable you would have coaching qualifications, some experience and great communication skills. If you do not have coaching qualifications, you will be supported financially in gaining these. It is a vibrant and growing club with ongoing coaching opportunities. The positions would suit a parent of a Junior Soccer player (Under 10/Under 12/Under 13) and/or also an experienced soccer player with the right qualities. Training minimum twice a week on either Monday/Wednesday/Friday nights. Matches are played Sunday mornings. For further information or to express an interest, please e-mail the Junior Director, Kimmy Pham Soe: juniordirector@aofc.com.au and visit the Junior’s website: http://aofc.com.au/Junior_Home_Page.html.

OLD SCHOLARS

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Jessica Ierace ~ Class of 2005

I began Year 11 at St Michael’s College in 2003 after leaving Siena College. I had always wanted to finish my schooling at St. Michael’s, as my older brother went there and it seemed like a really good school. I also didn't like being at an 'all girls' school and wanted to be able to socialise with boys again! After much resistance from my father, I enrolled and was accepted. I thoroughly enjoyed my two years at St Michael's and am so grateful for the amazing and diverse teachers I had during those couple of years.

After graduating in 2005, I went on to study a Bachelor of Laboratory Sciences at the University of South Australia. At the end of the first year of my studies, I decided that I didn't want to be a Medical Scientist, but I was more interested in food and nutrition. I then transferred to a Bachelor of Nutrition and Food Sciences which I completed in 2009. Finding a job as a Food Scientist after university proved to be quite difficult, so I took a full time job at the Red Cross Blood Service as a Technical Officer. I spent a few months learning how to process blood donations into different components, ready for transfer into patients. Just as I was settling in, I was offered a job at San Remo Macaroni Company as a Food Technologist. I was dying to break into the food industry and this was my chance so I left Red Cross and worked at San Remo doing quality control and research and development for the next year. During that time I decided that I wanted to do some further study and began a Graduate Diploma in Environmental Health Practice at Flinders University. After the first semester of my studies I realised that I wanted to be on the other side of the fence, and become an Environmental Health Officer or auditor. Luckily enough, my position at the Red Cross became available again so I applied for the position as it offered more flexible work hours. I was successful in getting my job as a Technical Officer back and picked up where I left off.

In 2012 I was nearing the end of my Graduate Diploma and started to think about applying for jobs in Environmental Health. At the time, there weren't any jobs in that field available in Adelaide, so I began looking interstate. Whilst I was job hunting, I found out that our department at the Blood Service was being made redundant as all processing was moving to the Melbourne site. I had the option of re-applying for my position in Melbourne or accept redundancy and look for another job. I was then offered two jobs that I had applied for, one was with the Broken Hill City Council in the Far West of New South Wales and the other was with the Shire of Kalamunda in Western Australia. Decisions, decisions!

I decided to move to Broken Hill as it was only around 6 hours away from Adelaide, which meant that I could go home and visit family and friends regularly. In August 2012, I packed up my belongings and drove to the ‘Biggest Outback City’ which would be my new home. On the drive, I realised I was heading towards the heart of Australia; red dirt, salt bush, emus, kangaroos and no water!
I have lived in Broken Hill for just over two years now and decided to give up my job as an Environmental Health Officer at the local council and try something that was out of my comfort zone. I am now employed at Maari Ma Health Aboriginal Corporation as a Health Information Officer. I have spent the last 12 months learning how an Aboriginal Health Service functions and have nearly finished writing the longest document of my life on child health which is soon to be published.

Broken Hill is such a diverse place, with a mine located in the heart of the town and sometimes an emu walking down the main street. I am enjoying my time here, but hope to return to Adelaide in the next couple of years. I hope that one day I will have children and can send them to St Michael's College so that they can experience all of the great things that the school has to offer.
