The defence held strong all day only letting a goal in late in the game, with the forward line working well as a group with Nairn Scott bagging 7 goals! The midfield ran hard all day with minimal breaks, and special mention to Christian Liemareff toiling manfully for four quarters in the ruck. Well done boys! Coach: Mr Young
9A	SMC 2.0.0. v SHC 15.0.0.; Best: E Stubing, B Hodges, B Schirripa, J Campbell-Novice, A Ebert
8A	SMC 2.2.14 v SHC 12.6.78; Best: Z Peucker, E Ashley, J Sochacki, B Keeler, J Chalubek, L Hughes; We suffered our first loss in 2 seasons of football away at Sacred Heart. We were comprehensively beaten in the air, at ground level and around the contest. Post game we discussed the need to always work hard in order to have success. It was probably a good lesson as we've been doing this to our opponents for 2 years. A reminder to all that good things are not handed to us, they must be earned. We'll get another crack at SHC later this year. We look forward to it.

Sacred heart really challenged the boys for the first 3 quarters. A really strong last quarter kicking 7 goals and holding Sacred Heart scoreless proved to be the difference. Playing an undefeated Trinity this weekend will be a really big challenge.
